PAC Announces Pairings for 2007 Championship Tournaments in Volleyball, Men's & Women's Soccer

WEXFORD, Pa. - The Presidents' Athletic Conference (PAC) has announced the pairings for the 2007 PAC Championship Tournaments in the sports of volleyball and men's & women's soccer, which will take place next week on campus sites. For the first time in conference history, the conference champions in all three sports will receive an automatic bid to the NCAA Division III Championships, which begin the week of November 4.

Westminster College is the top seed for both the volleyball and men's soccer championships, while Thomas More College has earned the #1 seed for the women's soccer tournament. Defending PAC champions are Westminster in men's & women's soccer and Thomas More in volleyball.

Admission for PAC tournament games is $5 for adults, $2 for students and $1 for programs. PAC regular season passes are not accepted for PAC Tournament games.

Following are the complete pairings for the 2007 PAC volleyball and men's & women's soccer championship tournaments:
